Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

This Office Action is in response to Applicants' Amendment/Request for Reconsideration filed on June 17, 2005. Claims 1-22 are present for further examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-22 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Frye et al (hereinafter, "Frye", U.S. Pub. No. 2001/0032105).

As per claims 1, 9 and 16, Frye discloses a method, system and computer readable medium for automated project accountability comprising:

- determining at least one decision maker of a project preparation (abstract and paragraph 0030);
- determining a readiness category for the decision maker (paragraph 0040, Frye discloses different stage approvers to review and decide whether the program (project) is ready to advance to the next stage);

Art Unit: 2157

- determining a decision process for the readiness category and readiness category rating (paragraphs 0031 and 0040); and
- determining a project readiness as a function of the project assessments (paragraphs 0034 and 0040).
- providing a readiness category rating for the readiness category (paragraph 0040);
- conducting a project assessment as a function of the decision process (paragraphs 0034 and 0040).

As per claims 2, 10 and 17, Frye discloses:

- assigning vote weighting to the decision maker (paragraph 0031).

As per claims 3, 11 and 18, Frye discloses:

- changing a project management application graphical interface, as a function of the project assessment (paragraphs 0033 and 0034).

As per claims 4, 12 and 19, Frye discloses:

- assigning a time limit (milestones, dates, etc.) in association with the project assessment and the project readiness (paragraph 0025).

As per claims 5, 13 and 20, Frye discloses:

- providing a collaborative environment for the decision maker (paragraph 0031).

As per claim 6, Frye discloses:

- wherein the collaborative discussion mechanism is invoked for determining the readiness category, determining the decision process, conducting the project assessment, and determining the project readiness (paragraph 0031).

As per claims 7 and 21, Frye discloses wherein the determination of at least one decision maker further comprises:

- providing project information from a project creator; accessing a data repository; retrieving a list from the data repository; selecting a project decision maker as a function of the project information and list; and selecting at least one contributing decision maker as a function of the project information, list, and project decision maker (paragraphs 0031 and 0040, Frye discloses different stage approvers to review and decide whether the program (project) is ready to advance to the next stage).

As per claims 8 and 22, Frye discloses:

- providing technical information from the project creator (paragraph 0030); and
- providing security information from the project creator (paragraph 0033).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
